- 3.2. Hours of work will not exceed 45 hours per week and will include adequate rest periods as defined in the most recent Employment and Labor Relations Act.
- 3.3. As stated with Section 17(2) of the Employment and Labor Relations Act, 2004, the Employee agrees that emergency situations, may require the Employee to work additional hours in a day.

4. Employee Duties & Responsibilities

- 4.1. The Employee shall work alongside the Executive Director and the Administrator and will report directly to the latter.
- 4.2. In addition to the tasks detailed in Paragraph 1.2 of this Contract, the Employee will be required to meet these expectations in the ordinary course of doing his work which the management considers necessary or proper for the interests of VOT Mwanza Limited.
- 4.3. The Employee undertakes to adhere to the VOT Mwanza Limited policies and procedures and to meet the expectations detailed therein. Specifically, the Employee undertakes to:
 - (a) attend regularly and punctually to work duties;
 - (b) be honest and loyal;
 - (c) carry out all the Employer-assigned functions and duties;
 - (d) follow all lawful and reasonable instructions given to the Employee including duties not normally associated with the Employee's job title;
 - (e) achieve performance targets as laid out by the Employer;
- 4.4. Repeated failure to meet performance targets and/or adhere to the expectations laid out by the Employer will be considered a breach of contract and will result in disciplinary action, which may include termination of this Contract for poor performance.
- 4.5. The Employee shall not absent himself from duty without permission or good cause which has been notified to the Employer in advance. Failure to provide justification of absence or secure permission in advance is grounds for disciplinary action in accordance with VOT Mwanza Limited's policies and procedures and the Tanzania Employment and Labor Relations Act, No. 6 of 2004 (the "Act").
- 4.6. The Employee shall be responsible for the safe custody and eventual return, upon termination of this Contract or by request of VOT Mwanza Limited management, in good condition and working order of, all of the Employer's property and resources that may be assigned or made available to the Employee for use during the term of this Contract. The Employee must promptly return the Employer's property and resources in good and usable form upon termination or expiration of this Contract, unless the term of employment has been otherwise extended. The Employee will be liable for the cost of replacement of equipment, property or resources which are unreturned, damaged, stolen or otherwise lost during the term of this Contract.

5. Confidentiality; Intellectual Property

- 5.1. The Employee shall treat as confidential the operations, dealings, technical information, knowledge, and information concerning the Employer, business affairs or finances of the Employer, its partners, clients, and affiliates, and the data utilized in or resulting from the performance of the Employee's obligations under this Contract. The Employee will only use Confidential Information as instructed by the Company Director and will not reveal it to a third party without the prior written consent of the Company Director. This confidentiality requirement survives the expiration of the Contract.

- 5.2. The Employee agrees that any intellectual property, including any data, research, client's data, reports, memoranda, photos or other information utilized in or resulting from the performance of the employee's obligations under this Contract is owned by the employer ("Work Product"). The Employee agrees that he will not use any work Product or other information resulting from the work of any other person engaged by the Employer, for the personal benefit of:
- (a) the Employee;
 - (b) any member of the Employee's family;
 - (c) any firm, company, or other legal entity in which the Employee has an interest or by which the Employee is engaged in any capacity; or
 - (d) any third party

without the Company Director's prior written permission in each instance.

- 5.3. Permission to use Work Products may be granted to the Employee on a case-by-case basis at the Company Director's sole discretion.

6. Remuneration

- 6.1. As compensation for all work performed under this Contract, the employee, during the term of the employment, shall be paid the Tanzania equivalent of a monthly basic salary of Tanzanian Shillings Five Hundred, Eighteen Thousand (518,000/=). In addition, NSSF contributions of 10% of your gross salary will be paid for you.

This figure is inclusive of the statutory deductions or contributions taken by the Employer on behalf of the Employee as required by the laws of United Republic of Tanzania and is changeable only subject to the decision of the Employer. The Employee is responsible for ensuring that all tax and other deductions are correct and paid in a timely manner.

- 6.2. The Employee's salary shall be paid monthly, at the end of each calendar month, for work performed during the course of the month.

7. Accident or Illness

- 7.1. The Employee shall be entitled to the statutory number of sick leave days per any leave cycle in accordance with the Act (Section 30. (1)(b)(ii)). Should the Employee be absent from work owing to sickness or injury, the Employee, or someone on his behalf must inform the Employer as soon as possible but not later than twenty-four (24) hours after the first day of absence, giving the expected date of return.

- 7.2. Any long-term sickness or disability is subject to the Employer's policies and procedures and applicable law.
- 7.3. Neither VOT Mwanza Limited nor any of its directors, officers, employees or other agents is liable to the Employee or any one related to the Employee for damages due to the Employee's illness, injury, or death which has not been caused in the course of employment duty.

8. Benefits, Leave and Holidays

- 8.1. All benefits, including leave, are provided to the Employee in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Act.
- 8.2. The Employee may not request or receive a cash alternative in lieu of the benefits described in Paragraphs 9.2, 9.3, or 9.4 of this Contract. Furthermore, any and all benefits will cease upon expiration or termination of this Contract.
- 8.3. Employees are entitled to 28 days of annual paid leave in respect of each leave cycle (12 months), inclusive of any public holidays that may occur during an employee's leave period.
- 8.4. If an employee works on a public holiday specified in the Public Holidays Ordinance, the employer shall pay the employee double the employees basic wage as per section 25 of The Act.
- 8.5. If the Employee's contract commences or terminates part way through the leave cycle, and he or he has been in employment for not less than six months, his or his entitlement to leave during that year will be assessed on a pro-rata basis and deductions from final salary due to the Employee on termination of employment will be made in respect of leave taken in excess of entitlement.
- 8.6. Leave must be taken at times mutually agreed upon with the Employer and sufficient notice of intention to take leave (at least 7 calendar days in advance of the intended leave) must be given to the Director. Agreement of leave must be mutually accepted in writing, and the Employer has the right to approve or postpone the applied or agreed leave when it seems reasonable to do so.
- 8.7. Employees are expected to take annual leave before expiration of the leave cycle at such times agreed to with the Director.
- 8.8. The Employee will be entitled to pro-rata payment in lieu of paid leave accrued that is due but untaken as of the date of termination of employment.
- 8.9. An employee shall in addition to paid leave, be entitled to leave travel assistance once every two years of continuous service with the same employer as per Labor Institutions Wage Order 2013 section 5 (2).

9. Paternity, Maternity, and Compassionate Leave

- 9.1. If male is eligible for paternity leave, the Employee shall be entitled to a maximum of 3 days paid paternity leave, under the conditions set out in the Act.
- 9.2. If female is eligible for maternity leave, the Employee shall be entitled to a maximum of 84 working days paid maternity leave (or 100 days in the case of multiple births), under the conditions set out in the Act.
- 9.3. The Employee shall be entitled to a maximum of 4 days paid compassionate leave, under the conditions set out in the Act, or as agreed with the Employer.
- 9.4. In case of amendment to the Act, if leave allowances become more favorable to the Employer than the leave allocations stated above will remain for the duration of the Contract period. If leave allowances become more favorable toward the Employee, then the Employee will receive the leave allocations set out in the Act for the duration of the Contract period.

10. Security and Safety

- 10.1. The Employee is required to comply with the Employer's regulations and with all security measures laid down by the Employer from time to time.
- 10.2. The Employee is personally responsible for taking reasonable care for the safety of his personal and property, the Employer and the Employer's property, and of other persons who may be affected by his or his acts or omissions during the course and scope of engagement.

11. Termination of Employment

- 11.1. This Contract shall terminate by either of the party giving one month written notice or upon the expiration date set forth in Paragraph 2.1 or on the date as mutually agreed in any written amendment to this Contract.
- 11.2. After any probation period has expired, this Contract may be terminated early by either the Employer or the Employee for any reason by giving not less than one months' written notice thereafter or payment of salary in lieu of notice. The Notice of Termination shall state the reason for termination and the date on which the notice is given.
- 11.3. Nothing in this Contract shall be construed as impairing the rights of the Employer to terminate this Contract in accordance with the general grounds for termination under Tanzanian law (e.g., prolonged illness or death of the Employee).
- 11.4. Any accrued benefits or rights required to be paid under Tanzanian law to the Employee shall be made no earlier than the effective date of termination, and shall only be paid once all the Employer's equipment, property, and other resources have been returned or replaced as agreed in Paragraph 4.6 of this Contract.

12. Extraneous Employment; Conflict of Interest

- 12.1. The Employee shall not, for the duration of his or his employment with the Employer, be entitled to render services or employment to any other person, organization or company, whether directly or indirectly, unless prior authorization is provided in writing by the Director.
- 12.2. Any such permission granted may be withdrawn with immediate effect upon the Director giving the Employee written notice thereof.

13. Force Majeure

- 13.1. Neither party shall be in breach of this Contract if there is any total or partial failure of performance by either party of its duties and obligations under this Contract occasioned by any act of God, fire, act of government or state, war, civil commotion, insurrection, embargo, or terrorist activity preventing any of the parties from or hindering any of the parties' ability to fulfil the obligations hereunder undertaken to be provided.
- 13.2. If either party is unable to perform its duties and obligations under this contract as a direct result of the effect of one of the reasons explained under Paragraph 13.1 above, that party shall give written notice to the other of the inability, which sets out full details of the reason in question. The operation of this Contract shall be suspended during the period (and only during the period) in which the reason continues. Forthwith upon the reason ceasing to exist, the party relying upon it shall give written advice to the other of this fact. If the reason continues for a period of more than thirty days and substantially affects the intention of this, the party not claiming relief under this clause shall have the right to rescind this Contract upon giving a written notice of thirty days of such rescission to the other party.

14. Staff Terms and Conditions; Acceptable Behavior

- 14.1. This Contract hereby incorporates, and the Employees agrees to be subject to, the Employer's policies and procedures as explained by the Employer and/or laid out in the VOT Mwanza Limited Organizational Manual, which may be amended from time to time, unless they are in actual conflict with applicable Tanzanian laws. The Employer will make available a copy of the VOT Mwanza Limited Organizational Manual available to the Employee.
- 14.2. The Employee hereby accepts to behave in a manner acceptable to VOT Mwanza Limited, other staff, and the wider community, and to behave in a responsible, professional, respectful and lawful manner at all times. The Employee hereby accepts that BoD decisions are final, and that repeated arguments or a refusal to abide by those decisions will be considered insubordinate and unprofessional behavior, and will result in disciplinary action.

In addition, the Employee recognizes the one-year term of this Contract, and will not request that the terms and conditions herein to be renegotiated within that time period.

15. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties)

- 15.1. A person who is not party to this Contract has no right under it to enforce any term of this Contract but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available under the law.

16. Disciplinary Procedure

- 16.1. The Employee is subject to the Employer's disciplinary policy and procedures which the Employer may, at its absolute discretion, prepare, circulate, and amend in accordance with the provisions of the Employment and Labor Relations (Code of Good Practice), 2007, as amended from time to time.
- 16.2. The Employer may suspend and, as applicable, take other disciplinary action against an Employee in the event of a breach of this Contract, a violation of the Employer's policies and procedures, and/or any major offence as permitted under Tanzanian law.

17. Place of Recruitment

- 17.1. The Employee has been recruited in Nyamagana District, Mwanza Region in Tanzania.

18. General

- 18.1. This Contract is executed in Tanzania mainland, and shall be governed by the Tanzania Employment and Labor Relations Act, No. 6 of 2004 and any regulations made thereunder and as may be applicable from time to time and other relevant laws of the United Republic of Tanzania. Any matters not expressly addressed in this Contract and any documents incorporated by reference shall be determined with reference to such laws.
- 18.2. This Contract incorporates by reference all of the Employer's policies and procedures which apply to the Employee during the Contract term. The Employer shall be entitled to formulate from time to time such rules, regulations, policies, procedures, arrangements, employee handbooks or other matters relating to the employment of the Employee that are not specifically contained in this Contract. These shall be duly communicated to the Employee and shall be deemed to apply to this Contract.
- 18.3. No agreement varying, adding to, deleting from or cancelling this Contract shall be effective unless reduced to writing and signed by or on behalf of both parties.
- 18.4. This Contract embodies the entire agreement and understanding between the parties related to the subject matter hereof and is in substitution for any previous agreements of employment or for services between the Employer and the Employee (which shall be deemed to have been terminated by mutual consent) hereto whether oral or written, are hereby cancelled and superseded. Any other prior understandings, negotiations, and representations are hereby cancelled and superseded.

- 18.5. If any term or provision of this Contract shall be held to be illegal or unenforceable, in whole or in part, under any enactment or rule of law, such term or provision or part shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Contract but the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Contract shall not be affected.
- 18.6. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, any notice under this Contract will be in writing and may be given by letter or email at such address as the Employee and Employer designate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Contract has been duly executed by the parties hereto as of the day and year first hereinbefore written.
